Jesus Comes to Cast Fire on the Earth.

Does this sound alarming?

What is this fire? Usually, texts in scripture have many meanings. It is up to us to discern which is apt for me, now. What did you think of when you first heard this text? The Holy Spirit, hell, bushfire, the campfire, glass-blowing, smelting metal?

What did St Francis of Assisi say?

'Praised be you, my Lord through Brother Fire, by whom you light up the night, and he is handsome and merry, robust and strong.'

Then, what about the division that Jesus says he brings. This is not what we expect from Jesus. How do we interpret this? The first thing I think of is that while one person will accept Jesus, another may not. I would be wrong to go with the family rather than follow Jesus.

Just for your benefit, here are a few internet-based resources.

Cathnews.com this is free, and a daily email feed provides you with Australian and world news about the church. Short articles, illustrated, I think if you want to know more about what's happening in the church you could give it a try. Of course, it's the bishops' publication, so if you want something more independent, edgy, you need ...

Eurekastreet.com.au this is also free to sign up to. It's very wide-ranging, politics, social justice, society, etc.

Though they are free to join, they do solicit donations. Someone has to pay for it.

Universalis.com There is a fee for this but once you have paid, you have access to this forever. It's an app for phone or tablet. Once installed it is all there, no internet connection required. It gives the liturgy texts for each day, in a variety of formats. There is an Australian version, with a Dominican option at the same time. Don't be shy of using it during Mass to follow the readings or make the responses. If you find the opening page confusing, persevere – I got it right, so you can too.

The celebration of the sacrament of Confirmation is near, August 23 and 30. Following the Confirmations on Friday, the candidates will receive First Holy Communion in the following two days. For your information, the First Holy Communion Masses will be at the Saturday 6pm, Sunday 10am and 5.30pm, on the weekends of 24/25 August, and 31 August/1 September.

Fire in Our Hearts

In today's Gospel reading, Jesus says that He has come to set the earth on fire. He didn't mean that He wanted everything to burn up! He meant that He wanted the flame of the Holy Spirit to burn in the hearts of people all over the world.

What do you think happens when the Holy Spirit is in someone's heart? The Spirit pulls us closer to God the Father and Jesus, When we are closer to God, we will love other people as God wanted.

How do we receive the Holy Spirit? When we are baptized the Holy Spirit comes into us for the first time. In Holy Communion and other Sacraments, the Spirit becomes even stronger in us. The Spirit comes to us in a special way in the Sacrament of Confirmation, giving us the grace and strength to live as grown up Christians and soldiers for God.

Pray to the Holy Spirit to live in your heart and make you love God more every day!
