Come to me, all you who labour and are overburdened”

Jesus' words today resonate with us, or people we know. For many people the restrictions required by Covid 19 are a nuisance and not much more. Still we understand that there are many, even just here in Adelaide, for whom life at present is full of anxiety – over employment, money, business, investment, safety, mental health, career path, ... the list goes on. Added to that the stress placed on health care workers. Let's not forget the decision makers in governments. They have to respond quickly and take hard decisions, and suffer criticism. (But how good that the voice of the people brought about a u-turn in the public transport plan!)

Jesus' words might sound empty to many. Coming to him may not change what we suffer. Coming to him means coming to the man who was crucified. And rose again. He took away many burdens in his life of preaching and healing. But in the end he took them all upon himself. Our sufferings are on him. They are offered to the Father in every Mass.

That does not mean that we don't have to come to the help of suffering people. We can be moved, by Jesus example, to take their sufferings on ourselves, in acts of compassion. A prayer I have learned recently says it like this: 'May my heart be a basket of kindness. Help me to share its treasures freely with others: a smile, a gesture, a listening ear, .... the sacrifice of my comfort and time.' Sometimes it takes even more: advocacy before authority, standing alongside in facing obstructions or threats. We can be stronger with the faith that Jesus has faced it all himself.

At Rosary hall, we are still limited to 100 people. For the 10am Mass only I ask you to book in advance. You can book for one week at a time. Book by phoning or emailing the parish office. Tell us how many people you are booking in, give the names and a contact number or email address. The contact details for the parish office are in Dominews. When you arrive, sign off your name on the list provided.

We are now legally able to gather 130 people in St Laurence's church. But with social distancing it will be hard to accommodate this number. In fact, the numbers at Mass are less than 100. For the time being, Mass will be celebrated at St Laurence's on Saturday at 6pm, Sunday at 9 and 11 am, and again on Sunday at 5.30pm. These Masses seem to have enough room - especially Sunday at 5.30. Hello ... ?

God bless you all and keep you safe.

Fr Paul

" I Will Give You Rest"

Today Jesus tells us, "Come to Me, all you who labour and are burdened and I will give you rest." God understands that we get tired and worn out. It may not be from physical activity like lifting heavy things or running. He wants us to come to Him when we need to rest- of our mind, of our soul and of our body. He refreshes us and gives us the energy and strength to carry on.

Do you ever feel like quitting when a job gets hard? Maybe you get tired of school or helping your Mum or Dad. Perhaps there are some things happening with your friends or other children that are making you sad or anxious or left out? When you feel like giving up, it's time to start praying! Things might seem easier when you pray, but even if it still seems hard you will be happier knowing that you are doing it for God.

Prayer:

Father, sometimes life is hard. We are thankful that you are always there to help us, to give us strength, to encourage us, and to lighten our load. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE

Domestic violence is not limited to physical violence. It also includes verbal, sexual, economic, social, emotional and psychological abuse. While physical violence is the most easily recognisable, other forms of abuse can be more difficult to identify, especially emotional/psychological abuse, social abuse, spiritual and economic abuse.

If you are experiencing domestic violence the Parish can offer support and practical advice through our Domestic Violence Support Persons.

If the situation is urgent, please contact:
The Police - 000

Domestic Violence Crisis Line 1800 800 098

How to get Parish support:

Contact can be made through the Parish Office in the first instance and you will be asked to nominate a "SAFE" time to receive a call. Only a telephone number is required if you do not want to leave your name. No personal contact information for the Support Person will be provided to you. Your telephone number will be provided to a support person who will call you and, if required, a "face to face" conversation can be arranged at the Parish Office.

All information will be kept confidential.

MARRIAGE MATTERS

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time (Zech 9:9-10 Rom 8:9, 11-13 Matthew 11:25-30)

'Yoked' to Him We are not Overburdened

A 'yoke' keeps oxen together when carrying a heavy load or ploughing a field. On the day you married you chose to be 'yoked' together 'till death us do part'. The burdens of life can lower your spirits and create a barrier to intimacy in your relationship. Jesus says: "Stay 'yoked' to me and I will help you, however heavy the load."
