Catholic Mission – Reach Out, Give Life

You have been very good at responding to persistent appeals for your donations: to the Lebanon people after the awful explosion; to the Holy Places appeal, usually taken up on Good Friday; to the Peter's Pence appeal for the works of the Pope, usually taken in June.

Now we are asking for your continuing generosity to Catholic Mission, 'The International mission agency of the Catholic Church in Australia'. This year the focus is on Cambodia. There are few Catholics in this country but there have been great advances from a time when all religion was banned. In 1990 when religious services were allowed again '3000 Catholics were living in the country.

One of them was an older woman who had been the only Catholic in her village of Prek-Toal for fifteen years. The village is made up of houses built on bamboo rafts moored at the mouth of a river which flows from Battambang to Tonlé Sap Lake. "There were no priests, there was no Christian community to support her. However, at Christmas she gathered her neighbours together to celebrate the birth of Jesus with her," explained missionary Father Totet Banaynaz. Since then, a mobile floating church has been built. Fifty baptized people live in the village and each year, a growing number of children and adults are preparing themselves for baptism and Holy Communion.'

Bishop Schmitthaeusler, Apostolic Vicar for the Cambodian capital of Phnom Penh: "When I arrived here, it was Christmastime, and I thought that it would be good to enact the Christmas story... I then realised that the time was right for big stage productions and to begin with what I would call evangelisation through art.... Art runs in the blood of the Cambodian people. For all of the people here, both children and adults, it is absolutely natural to dance and to sing," the bishop said, explaining how the rich artistic and cultural heritage of Cambodia could be used for evangelisation purposes.' (cf. Aid to the Church in Need, <https://acninternational.org/>)

Evangelisation is also carried on by Christian charity. The need is greater because of the explosion of land mines laid during the conflicts of the 1970s 80s and 90s. Catholic Mission appeals to you to 'help empower children and young adults with disability at the Arrupe Centre in Cambodia, which provides vital care for those who would otherwise have limited opportunities or support to lead a fulfilling life.'

You should find envelopes on the seats in church, or in the porches. Inside Dominews you will find details of on-line giving.

Thank you for your generosity.

Carers Week : Sunday 11 to Saturday 17 October 2020

BLEST BE THE WORK OF OUR HANDS

Carers are our unsung heroes and are a real presence of Jesus in our communities. There are over 2.7 million family and friend carers in Australia providing 36 million hours of care and support every week to a family member or friend who has a disability, mental illness, drug and/or alcohol dependency, chronic condition, terminal illness or who is frail. Unpaid carers make an outstanding contribution to our nation.

A Prayer of Celebration and Thanksgiving in Carer's Week

Loving Father, we thank and honour you for the carers in our midst.
We ask you to bless, fill and flood their hearts with your endless love.

Guide and sustain them with your everlasting peace.

Holy Spirit, pour out your gifts and fruits on all those who provide care for others.
Grant them time and rest to rejuvenate, courage and fortitude to face the day to day challenges and wisdom and trust to know when to ask for help.

Blessed Trinity, inspire and awaken us to be a Church community that is actively seeking to provide assistance and support to people who care for our brothers and sisters, who are witnesses of your gifts to our world.

Amen.

-Australian Catholic Bishops Conference 2007

On October 7, we celebrated the Feast of Our Lady of the Rosary. The month of October is a powerful time to draw close to Our Blessed Mother by praying the Rosary. She loves it when we draw near to her in trust. Praying the Rosary is similar to small children reaching up to hold the hand of their mother in complete trust.

During her lifetime, Mother Teresa always carried a rosary in her hand. In this way, she said, she was holding Mary's hand.

Saint Louis de Montfort said, "Mary is the safest, easiest, shortest, and most perfect way of approaching Jesus." May she draw us ever nearer to her Immaculate Heart and to that of her beloved Son.

MARRIAGE MATTERS

*Twenty-Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time
(Isaiah 25:6-10 Phil 4:12-14 Matt 22:1-4)*

Add Another Stitch

God our Father invites us all to His great wedding feast in heaven! In living out our married life, we have been making our wedding garments! It is woven, sewn and stitched with all the little acts of loving kindness, long forgotten, the courtesies in every little action we show toward each other, our children, family and friends.

This Week's Readings
28th Sunday Ordinary Time Year A

Entrance Antiphon

If you, O Lord, should mark iniquities, Lord, who could stand? But with you is found forgiveness, O God of Israel.

A reading from the prophet Is 25:6-10
 Isaiah

A reading from the letter of Phil 4:12-14, 19-20
 St Paul to the Philippians

Alleluia, alleluia!

May the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ enlighten the eyes of our heart, that we might see how great is the hope to which we are called.

Alleluia!

A reading from the holy Gospel Matt 22:1-14
 according to Matthew

Communion Antiphon

The rich suffer want and go hungry, but those who seek the Lord lack no blessing.

Responsorial Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd;
 there is nothing I shall want.
 Fresh and green are the pastures
 where he gives me repose.
 Near restful waters he leads me,
 to revive my drooping spirit.

He guides me along the right path;
 he is true to his name,
 If I should walk in the valley of darkness
 no evil would I fear.

You are there with your crook and your staff;
 with these you give me comfort.

You have prepared a banquet for me
 in the sight of my foes.
 My head you have anointed with oil;
 my cup is overflowing.

Surely goodness and kindness shall follow me
 all the days of my life.

In the Lord's own house shall I dwell
 for ever and ever.
