In the Gospel we hear the story of Jesus appearing to the disciples on the beach. The disciples didn't recognize Jesus. This was the third time he had appeared to them following his death, and yet his friends seemed too busy with their fishing to recognize their Lord. Jesus' love doesn't waver. He reveals his identity by using his power to overflow their nets with fish and welcomes them back into community with him by serving them breakfast. From this, we are reminded of the way we continually turn away from Jesus, forgetting his love and power as we are consumed with our jobs, families, possessions, and so much more, and yet he's always there to call us back and forgive us and provide us with an abundance. Let's be thankful that Jesus welcomes us back each week at the communion table!

The disciples tried and tried to catch some fish. When they obeyed Jesus, they caught so many fish their nets almost broke!
JOHN 21:1-6

Welcome

Glad you're here!

Do you know all the people in church when you come to Mass?

We have quite a few new parishioners who would be delighted to meet you.

Next time why not reach out to another person, introduce yourself and make them welcome. We will be starting Morning Tea after 10am Mass soon and this is a great opportunity to get to know other parishioners.

Rosary Before Midday Masses

The Rosary is prayed before every midday Masses at 11:30 am (St Laurence's, Rosary Church or Calvary Chapel). All are welcome.

MARRIAGE MATTERS

(www.twainoneflesh.org.uk)

Things Change, Miracles Happen

Today's Scripture speaks into the heart of our marriage relationship. When Jesus comes into Peter's life and work, just as He comes into ours, things change, 'miracles' happen: He invites, serves and asks profound questions: "do you love me?". He challenges: "feed... look after...". Peter found forgiveness and a commissioning; so can we when responding to His call: "follow me".

Today's Readings
3rd Sunday of Easter

Entrance Antiphon

Cry out with joy to God, all the earth;
O sing to the glory of his name.
O render him glorious praise, alleluia.

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles Acts 5:27-32, 40-41

A reading from the book of the Apocalypse Revelation 5:11-14

Alleluia, alleluia!
Christ is risen, the Lord of all creation;
he has shown pity on all people.
Alleluia!

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John John 21:1-14

Communion Antiphon

Jesus said to his disciples: Come and eat.
And he took bread and gave it to them, alleluia.

Responsorial Psalm

I will praise you, Lord, you have rescued me
and have not let my enemies rejoice over me.
O Lord, you have raised my soul from the dead,
restored me to life from those who sink into the grave.

Sing psalms to the Lord, you who love him,
give thanks to his holy name.
His anger lasts but a moment; his favour through life.
At night there are tears, but joy comes with dawn.

The Lord listened and had pity.
The Lord came to my help.
For me you have changed my mourning into dancing;
O Lord my God, I will thank you for ever.

Next Week's Readings:

Acts 13:14, 43-52
Revelation 7:9, 14-17
John 10:27-30
