Corpus Christi, aka The Body and Blood of Christ.

This is one of the leading feasts of the Church. It is celebrated at this time of the year, following closely after Easter, Ascension and Trinity. It celebrates the greatest gift of God – himself, to be our food of eternal life, given through Jesus' dying and rising again.

I have a request: When you receive Holy Communion, you should hear the minister say 'The Body of Christ', right? Well, the minister should hear you say, 'Amen'.

It's not such a huge thing, is it? And yet there are many who don't say it. Why am I making such a fuss, like, every year? Well, I wonder what is in the minds of people. Are they believers? Do they value what they are receiving? Will they treat the sacrament of the Lord reverently? I wonder, if you are not prepared to do this little thing, are you prepared to do anything for Jesus? If someone said to you, 'take ten thousand dollars', would you respond in silence? The minister is supposed to give the sacrament to someone who is 'properly disposed'? How can we tell? Hearing the reply 'Amen' is one of the ways.

This is what St Augustine wrote: 'You are saying "Amen" to what you are: your response is a personal signature, affirming your faith. When you hear "The body of Christ", you reply "Amen." Be a member of Christ's body, then, so that your "Amen" may ring true!'

Some of our young people are beginning soon to prepare for the sacraments of Confirmation and Eucharist. By this they will complete their Christian Initiation in the Catholic Church. Pray for them and their catechists, parents, and godparents - and give them good example.

There are various things going on in the Archdiocese. I don't know which to give publicity to. So,

Who wants to find out more about the Diocesan Assembly in October?

Who wants to know more about the Plenary Council on 3 July?

Who wants to know more about the World Meeting of Families on 25-26 June?

Who wants to know more about Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Sunday, 3 July?

Who wants to know what it means to become a Catholic Earthcare parish?

Who wants to be more equipped for evangelization at the Adelaide Fire Weekend, 16-17 July?

Who wants to do something about the food crisis in the Horn of Africa?

If you say 'I do' to any of the above, I can give you the information.

They are all implied in your 'Amen' to the Body and Blood of Christ.

The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

Today we celebrate the Body and Blood of Our Lord in the Holy Eucharist. It's a celebration of the fact that the body and blood of Jesus Christ, the Son of God, is present in the bread and wine during the Eucharist - a re-enactment of the Last Supper, the final meal that Jesus Christ shared with his disciples.

At the Last Supper, Jesus changed bread and wine into His own Body and Blood. He has the power to do this because he is God. He did this because He wanted to stay with us even after he went to Heaven.

Jesus comes to us in every Mass. The priest takes the place of Jesus, saying the words that Jesus said at the Last Supper, and the bread and wine become the real Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus even though they still look like bread and wine.

Baptismal Preparation Sessions

We would like to recommence our Baptismal Preparation Sessions and are looking for some willing helpers. The sessions will be run once a month and take approx. 1 – 1 1/2 hours. All resources will be provided and a “How To” session will be run beforehand. If you are interested please contact the parish office.

MARRIAGE MATTERS (www.twoinoneflesh.org.uk)

Memories of You

Memories enable us to make the past present. At family gatherings we remember things we have shared together. At funerals we remember all that the person meant to us. At the family Eucharist the past is made present as we remember what Abraham, Melchizedek, Moses, and Jesus did. Let us seek to create God/good memories for ourselves and our children.

Bequests

Generosity of spirit is an important part of what Living Catholic is all about. Leaving a bequest epitomises this spirit and reminds us that God loves a cheerful giver.

Naturally you should always consider immediate family and friends first, but we would be incredibly grateful for any support that you can provide.

Bequests can be in favour of the North Adelaide Prospect Parish or in favour of the Dominican Fathers.

Contact the Parish office for more information.
