Prayer from Pope Francis for All Families

Dear families,

I invite you to continue the journey, listening to the Father who calls you.
Be missionaries along the highways and byways of the world.
Do not walk alone. You young families, be guided by those who know the way.
You who are farther along, be companions on the way for others.
You who are lost because of difficulties, do not be overcome by sadness.
Trust in the love that God has placed in you. Plead daily with the Spirit to revive that love.

Joyfully proclaim the beauty of being family.

Proclaim to children and young people the grace of Christian matrimony.

Give hope to those who have none.

Act as if everything depended on you, knowing that everything must be entrusted to God.

Be the ones to sew the fabric of a synodal society and Church, creating relationships, multiplying love and life. Be signs of the living Christ.

Do not be afraid of what the Lord asks of you, nor of being generous with him.

Open yourselves to Christ. Listen to him in the silence of prayer.

Accompany those who are more fragile.

Carry those who are alone: refugees, abandoned.

Be the seed of a more fraternal world.

Be families with large hearts.

Be the welcoming face of the Church.

May Mary Our Mother come to your aid when there is no more wine.

May she be a companion in the moments of silence and trial.

May she help you to walk together with her risen Son.

Amen.

Martha and Mary

As Jesus and his disciples were traveling, they came to a town where Martha lived with her sister Mary. The sisters welcomed Jesus into their home and Martha immediately began to work very hard to get supper ready for Jesus. While Martha busied herself in preparing the meal, Mary just sat at the feet of Jesus and listened to his teaching.

Martha was upset that her sister was not helping her, so she went to Jesus and said, "Do you see that my sister is not helping me? Tell her to help me."

Jesus answered, "Martha, Martha, you are worried and troubled about too many things. Only a few things are important, perhaps just one. Mary has chosen that one thing and I will not take it away from her."

Many of us make the same mistake that Martha made. We get so busy working, going to school, playing, or watching television that we often forget the most important thing. We forget to spend time with Jesus! We must be very careful that we don't get so busy doing good things that we leave out the best! After all, Jesus is the most important thing!

Dear Jesus, help us to remember that you are the most important thing in our lives. Don't let us get so busy with other things that we forget to spend time with you. Amen.

WHAT HAPPENS AT MASS

To continue with some extracts from the book, 'What Happens at Mass': I hope that these words will help everyone to understand Mass better. I hope also that you will be able to pass on something of its infinite value to your children or grandchildren.

The last extract stated: 'God has concentrated the entirety of His saving love for the world into the ritual action and words of the eucharistic liturgy.'

To go on: '... it would be a mistake to think that the Mass should be immediately understandable to all. How could it be? It is the summit of the Christian life. One does not begin at the summit; a summit is arrived at slowly and with effort. ... I will not get very far in understanding the Mass if I think I have the right to have it be meaningful to me in ways that I define. That would take away all possibility of receiving the Mass as a gift from another, from God. He defines it. It is His initiative, His action.'

MARRIAGE MATTERS

(www.twoinoneflesh.org.uk)

Choosing 'the better part' is Listening

The Gospel relates the different ways Martha and Mary behaved. We too can fall into such patterns of behaviour. It's human nature to "worry and fret over so many things". Today's Scripture calls us to really listen, then, like Mary, we can choose "the better part".

Let us recommit today to deepening our level of listening in our marriage.

MORNING TEA

There will be Morning Tea after the Sunday 10am Mass in the Rosary Church Hall. All are welcome.

Please contact the Parish office if you would like to be on the roster to help with setting up and packing up afterward.

Aid to the Church in Need
ACN AUSTRALIA

A message from Aid to the Church in Need Australia: ACN is the Pontifical Foundation dedicated to supporting the suffering and persecuted Church.

The diocese of Huancavelica is one of the poorest in Peru. Until recently the people here have had little spiritual formation and infrequent visits from a priest since the villages are far apart. Two priests are managing to visit every village once a month, celebrating Holy Mass, administering the Sacrament of the sick, and preparing people for the reception of the Sacraments. This pastoral care is now bearing fruit, and more and more Catholics are returning to the practice of their faith, but a robust all-terrain vehicle would make it much easier for these priests to minister more intensively to the Catholic faithful in Peru.

Can you provide transport so priests can reach the faithful in Peru?

Africa Food Crisis Appeal

After three years of poor rainfall, some of the worst locust plagues seen in decades and ongoing conflict, displacement and the impacts of COVID, millions of people are facing hunger and even starvation across the Horn of Africa. Through partners on the ground, donations to Caritas Australia's Africa Food Crisis appeal will go towards food distributions, support for children impacted by malnutrition, clean drinking water, cash transfers to households at risk of poverty, hygiene supplies as well as seeds and household items for families that have been displaced by conflict.

Today's Readings
16th Sunday of Ordinary Time - Year C

Entrance Antiphon

See, I have God for my help. The Lord sustains my soul.
I will sacrifice to you with willing heart,
and praise your name, O Lord, for it is good.

A reading from the book of Genesis Genesis 18:1-10

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Colossian Colossians 1:24-28

Alleluia, alleluia!

Happy are they who have kept the word with a generous heart and yield a harvest through perseverance.

Alleluia!

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke Luke 10:38-42

Communion Antiphon

The Lord, the gracious, the merciful,
has made a memorial of his wonders;
he gives food to those who fear him.

Responsorial Psalm

Lord, who shall dwell on your holy mountain?
He who walks without fault;
he who acts with justice
and speaks the truth from his heart;
he who does not slander with his tongue.

He who does no wrong to his brother,
who casts no slur on his neighbour,
who holds the godless in disdain,
but honours those who fear the Lord.

He who keeps his pledge come what may;
who takes no interest on a loan
and accepts no bribes against the innocent.
Such a man will stand firm for ever.

Next Week's Readings:

Genesis 18:20-32
Colossians 2:12-14
Luke 11:1-13
