World Mission Sunday

Join Catholic Mission in this celebration with missionaries from around the world.

About Catholic Mission

Catholic Mission is the Australian agency of the Pontifical Mission Societies – the Catholic Church's global organisation dedicated to continuing Jesus Christ's mission in the world: that all may have life to the full.

Catholic Mission contributes funding and project support to critical church-run initiatives in Africa, Asia, Oceania, and South America. These include spiritual formation, pastoral care, education, health, sanitation, and agricultural programs.

Here in Australia, we form people to go out and be missionary in their professional and personal lives; to pray, advocate and act for those on the margins. Catholic Mission has offices in 27 Australian dioceses

Pope Francis, in his 2022 World Mission Sunday Message reminds us that we are all invited to answer the call to be missionary, sharing that "Mission is carried out together, not individually...".

To celebrate this time of the year, Catholic Mission is launching #wearestillhere, a 2022 campaign reflecting on the role of being a missionary.

"Being missionary means to give hope to those who have lost hope, and to work together with the community to continue building a better, more just, world for everyone." Says Maria, one of the key project partners in this World Mission Month, focusing on Ethiopia.

The World Mission Campaign #wearestillhere is a celebration, an acknowledgment, and a thank you message to everyone who is answering the call of being missionaries wherever they are. Catholic Mission would like to thank you for taking part in the celebration of World Mission Sunday and answering the call to be missionaries.

Together, let's reach out and give life. Join Catholic Mission as a missionary and learn what Mission means to our brothers and sisters at catholicmission.org.au/wearestillhere (great videos here!)

November Mass Envelopes

If you would like to have those who have gone before us remembered in all Masses in November, please use the November Mass envelopes which will be available in the Churches. The names on the envelopes will be added to the Remembrance Book and Masses will be offered for those in the Remembrance Book collectively. Individual names will not be called out during mass. Please remember to write legibly to avoid spelling errors in the book.

MARRIAGE MATTERS

Piercing the Clouds with our Humble Prayers

‘The humble man’s prayers pierce the clouds.’ That is why Jesus said the prayers of the repentant tax collector won God’s favour, and why the judgmental attitudes of the Pharisees didn’t. There is a bit of the Pharisee in all of us; humility is knowing the truth about ourselves. Proud people deceive themselves; let us grow in humility together.

MORNING TEA

There will be Morning Tea after the Sunday 10am Mass in the Rosary Church Hall. All are welcome.

Rosary at 4:50 pm Every Sunday

The Rosary will be prayed every Sunday at 4:50 pm before the 5:30 pm Mass at Our Lady of the Rosary Church. All are welcome.

WHAT HAPPENS AT MASS

JEREMY DISCOLL, OSB

THE ASSEMBLY (contd.)
‘In the eucharistic celebration itself, many elements express the divine nature of the reality that is occurring; indeed, these elements are the very means of embodying and ensuring the particular and precise nature of what is happening; namely, that Christ is acting and that the community is entirely defined and comes into being only through what he does and accomplishes. Thus, for example, in the person of the bishop or priest Christ is represented as the head of this assembly. It is he who gathers it; it is under his authority that it stands; it is his word that is gratefully heard and pondered; it is together with him that the community will dare to speak a word back to the Father and make its thanksgiving offering to him.’
(P.9. Emphasis added)

Be Humble

Jesus told about two men who went to the temple. A temple is like a church. One of the men bragged about all of the great things he did and thanked God that he wasn't like those other sinners in the temple.

The other man, instead of bragging about how great he was, humbly asked God to forgive him for all of the times he failed to be the kind of person that God wanted him to be.

This man knew that he could never do enough good things to be as high as God. This man knew that he needed God. Jesus was not the least bit impressed with all of the bragging of the first man. After all, when we compare our goodness to the goodness of Jesus, it just doesn't stack up, does it?

"I'm really glad that I'm not like that tax collector..."

In a recent edition of the Southern Cross readers may recall an article about the Roche Foundation Exhibition of Embroidery held at the Roche Museum in North Adelaide in 2021. The highlight of that exhibition was the spectacular Cope designed by the pioneers, Mother Rose Columba Adams and embroidered by Mother Francis Philomena Ullathorne and Mother Rose Columba circa 1889.

The Cope will be on display in the Chapel and school museum from 10:30 till 11:30 a.m as part of the Saint Dominic's Priory College Fete on Sunday October 30. An opportunity not to be missed!

Today's Readings
30th Sunday— Year C

Entrance Antiphon

Let the hearts that seek the Lord rejoice;
turn to the Lord and his strength;
constantly seek his face.

A reading from the book of Sirach 35:12-14,
Ecclesiasticus 16-19

A reading from the second letter of 2 Timothy 4:6-8,
St Paul to Timothy 16-18

Alleluia, alleluia!

God was in Christ, to reconcile the world to himself;
and the Good News of reconciliation he has entrusted to us.
Alleluia!

A reading from the holy Gospel Luke 18:9-14
according to Luke

Communion Antiphon

We will ring out our joy at your saving help and exult in the name of our God.

Responsorial Psalm

I will bless the Lord at all times,
his praise always on my lips;
in the Lord my soul shall make its boast.
The humble shall hear and be glad.

The Lord turns his face against the wicked
to destroy their remembrance from the earth.
The just call and the Lord hears and rescues them in all their distress.

The Lord is close to the broken-hearted;
those whose spirit is crushed he will save.
The Lord ransoms the souls of his servants.
Those who hide in him shall not be condemned.

Next Week's Readings

Wisdom 11:22 - 12:2
2 Thessalonians 1:11 - 2:2
