ASH WEDNESDAY THIS WEEK

Ash Wednesday occurs this week, the beginning of the Season of Lent. Lent is a time of penance, repentance, forgiveness, reparation for sin, sharing in the sufferings of Christ, and finally sharing in his glory.

We begin with the imposition of ashes. In the Bible, ashes represent the acknowledgement of sin, repentance for sin, remorse, and pleas for forgiveness.

We continue with penance in our everyday lives; a discreet but tangible effort to deny ourselves some legitimate pleasure, reminding ourselves that we are no more than God's children.

Especially on Ash Wednesday, and also on Good Friday (April 7) we not only eat less, but also abstain from meat. Everybody does these, added to their own chosen penances, making sure that we understand how God provides richly for us, and we too easily take it for granted. These penances are not ends in themselves; they are not to be imposed if there is hardship or risk.

Look for opportunities to receive the ashes:

- At Rosary church, 9.30am the Mass of Ash Wednesday for the people of the parish and our senior Rosary School,
- At Calvary North Adelaide Hospital chapel, midday the Mass of Ash Wednesday,
- At St Laurence's Church, 7.30pm, Liturgy of the Word for Ash Wednesday with blessing and imposition of ashes.

The decoration of the churches is more restrained, the 'Gloria' and 'Alleluia' are removed from the liturgy, bells are not rung, until the joyful night when we celebrate the institution of the Eucharist (Holy Thursday, 6 April), and again on Easter Vigil night, when we give full voice to our joy at the Resurrection of Christ.

All this is to share the suffering of Jesus, as he has shared our suffering, becoming more like him, so as to share his glory. 'For you were bought with a price. So glorify God in your body' (I Cor 6.20)

MARRIAGE MATTER

Finding the Joy in our Sacramental Relationship

The joy of courting couples is obvious for all to see.

Over the years, excitement can lessen, our independent attitudes strengthen; competition and jealousy creep in. Today Jesus calls us to "...turn the other cheek...". In confidence share, in trust listen, in faith forgive, so that our spouse will grow in self-worth and the sparkle of joy will reignite.

ROSARY SCHOOL ENROLMENTS

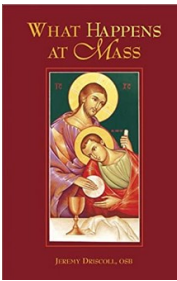

Rosary School is a Catholic School in the Dominican Tradition catering for students from Reception to Year 6 in a co-educational setting.

Our enrolment process for Reception students starting in 2025 will commence in May/June of this year and we welcome applications from families and friends within the Prospect/ North Adelaide Parish.

A child turning 5 from 1st May 2024 to 30th April 2025 will commence Reception in our 2025 intake.

Please contact the school office on 8343 5700 or visit our website www.rosary.catholic.edu.au to download an Application for Enrolment or book a Principal's Tour.

A family's financial circumstances should not be a barrier to a student accessing a Catholic education.

The Sign of the Cross. [The words are] the verbal formula with which a person is baptised... The one God has only one name, but that name is Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. This is the full name of God.'

'Every time we mark the sign of the cross on our bodies and pronounce at the same time the holy name of God – Father, Son, and Holy Spirit – we are reminding ourselves of our Baptism and choosing it again in our lives.'

'The only door through which to enter what is happening [in the Mass] is Baptism; that is, our share in the death and Resurrection of Christ, our share in the divine name Father, Son and Holy Spirit. What we are about to experience is a deepening of what was begun in us in Baptism...'

Love Your Enemies

One day Jesus was teaching out on a hillside. We call his lesson that day "The Sermon on the Mount." In his sermon, Jesus said some things that really surprised his listeners. "You have heard that you should love your neighbors and hate your enemies," Jesus said. "But I say, love your enemies -- and if someone does mean and hateful things to you, pray for them." Why should we love our enemies? Jesus said that when we love our enemies, we are acting like children of God. If we only love those who love us, will God reward us for that? If we are only kind to our friends, what is so great about that? Everybody does that!

It isn't always easy to love your enemies, but there are some good reasons for doing it.

- It demonstrate the love of God to others.
- It sets a good example for others to follow.
- It turns enemies into friends.

Prayer:

Father, it is easy to love those who love us. Help us to love our enemies so that they might know that we are your children. In Jesus' name we pray, amen.

Today's Readings
7th Sunday of Ordinary Time - Year A

Entrance Antiphon

O Lord, I trust in your merciful love.
 My heart will rejoice in your salvation.
 I will sing to the Lord who has been bountiful with me.

A reading from the book of Leviticus 19:1-2, 17-18

A reading from the first letter of 1 Corinthians 3:16-23
 St Paul to the Corinthians

Alleluia, alleluia!
 Whoever keeps the word of Christ,
 grows perfect in the love of God.
 Alleluia!

A reading from the holy Gospel Matthew 5:38-48
 according to Matthew

Communion Antiphon

I will recount all your wonders, I will rejoice in you and be glad, and sing psalms to your name, O Most High.

Responsorial Psalm

My soul, give thanks to the Lord,
 all my being, bless his holy name. My soul, give thanks to the Lord and never forget all his blessings.

It is he who forgives all your guilt, who heals every one of your ills, who redeems your life from the grave, who crowns you with love and compassion.

The Lord is compassion and love,
 slow to anger and rich in mercy.
 He does not treat us according to our sins
 nor repay us according to our faults.

As far as the east is from the west
 so far does he remove our sins.
 As a father has compassion on his sons,
 the Lord has pity on those who fear him.

Next Week's Readings

Genesis 2:7-9, 3:1-7
 Romans 5:12, 17-19
 Matthew 4:1-11
