TABLE OF HOPE – HAPAG NG PAG-ASA, by Filipino artist Joey Velasco

When God's only-begotten Son took our flesh he dedicated the whole of its substance to our salvation. He offered his body to God the Father on the altar of the cross as a sacrifice for our reconciliation. He shed his blood for our ransom and purification, so that we might be redeemed from our wretched state of bondage and cleansed from all sin. But to ensure that the memory of so great a gift would abide with us forever, he left his body as food and his blood as drink for the faithful to consume in the form of bread and wine.

O precious and wonderful banquet, that brings us salvation and contains all sweetness! Could anything be of more intrinsic value? Under the old law it was the flesh of calves and goats that was offered, but here Christ himself, the true God, is set before us as our food. What could be more wonderful than this? No other sacrament has greater healing power; through it sins are purged away, virtues are increased, and the soul is enriched with an abundance of every spiritual gift. It is offered in the Church for the living and the dead, so that what was instituted for the salvation of all may be for the benefit of all. Yet, in the end, no one can fully express the sweetness of this sacrament, in which spiritual delight is tasted at its very source, and in which we renew the memory of that surpassing love for us which Christ revealed in his passion.

It was to impress the vastness of this love more firmly upon the hearts of the faithful that Our Lord instituted this sacrament at the Last Supper. As he was on the point of leaving the world to go to the Father, after celebrating the Passover with his disciples, he left it as a perpetual memorial of his passion. It was the fulfilment of ancient figures and the greatest of all his miracles, while for those who were to experience the sorrow of his departure, it was destined to be a unique and abiding consolation.

"On the feast of Corpus Christi", by St Thomas Aquinas. Universalis Publishing.

Vale John Holland

John Holland, 22/6/33 – 21/5/23, lived virtually the whole of his long life as one of our parishioners. An altar server (kids ask your grandparents about this!), married at St Laurence's church, where his children were baptised, he was farewelled into eternal life again at St Laurence's church in the presence of a standing-room-only congregation. A teacher at CBC, and well known as a footy player and coach. Attended Sunday Mass without fail with his wife Tess at his side, until hospitalisation a few weeks before his death. Twenty-three living grandchildren are an enduring legacy.

MARRIAGE MATTERS

Feed your Love

Without food we die! Our wedding promise was to nourish each other so that we bring life to our marriage. We feed each other in all the little countless ways, but particularly in our tender lovemaking, our talking and listening, support and encouragement, particularly in times of doubt and uncertainty. In these ways our marriage will grow and shine.

Thank You

Tess Holland would like to thank all the women of the parish who kindly provided cakes and nibbles for the Celebration of John's life after the funeral Mass.

WHAT HAPPENS AT MASS

THE EVENT CHARACTER OF THE PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD.

Jesus rose from the dead with the whole life that he once lived rising with him...

So it is that every word that Jesus spoke, every action he performed can be present to us because it rose with him...

But not only that. When we remember that Jesus did not drop from the sky but became flesh through the long centuries of the waiting creation and of Israel's history, then we realise that all of this rises with him as well.

Every event of Israel's past is part of the event that he is, and ... all those events are part of the one event that he is, and what he is is the event of this liturgy. (pg. 36)

The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

Today we celebrate the Body and Blood of Our Lord in the Holy Eucharist. It's a celebration of the fact that the body and blood of Jesus Christ, the Son of God, is present in the bread and wine during the Eucharist - a re-enactment of the Last Supper, the final meal that Jesus Christ shared with his disciples. At the Last Supper, Jesus changed bread and wine into His own Body and Blood. He has the power to do this because he is God. He did this because He wanted to stay with us even after he went to Heaven. Jesus comes to us in every Mass. The priest takes the place of Jesus, saying the words that Jesus said at the Last Supper, and the bread and wine become the real Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus even though they still look like bread and wine.
