HOW TO PREACH THE GOSPEL

‘Woe to me if I do not preach the Gospel!’ I am sent by Christ himself to do this. I am an apostle, I am a witness. The more distant the goal, the more difficult my mission, the more pressing is the love that urges me to it. I must bear witness to his name: Jesus is the Christ, the Son of the living God. He reveals the invisible God, he is the first-born of all creation, the foundation of everything created. He is the teacher of mankind, and its redeemer. He was born, he died and he rose again for us.

He is the centre of history and of the world; he is the one who knows us and who loves us; he is the companion and friend of our life. He is the man of sorrows and of hope. It is he who will come and who one day will be our judge and – we hope – the everlasting fulness of our existence, our happiness.

I could never finish speaking about him: he is the light and the truth; indeed, he is the way, the truth and the life. He is the bread and the spring of living water to satisfy our hunger and our thirst. He is our shepherd, our guide, our model, our comfort, our brother. Like us, and more than us, he has been made little, poor, humiliated; he has been a worker; he has known misfortune and been patient. For our sake he spoke, worked miracles and founded a new kingdom where the poor are happy, where peace is the principle for living together, where the pure of heart and those who mourn are raised up and comforted, where those who hunger and thirst after justice have their fill, where sinners can be forgiven, where all are brothers.

Jesus Christ: you have heard him spoken of; indeed the greater part of you are already his: you are Christians. So, to you Christians I repeat his name, to everyone I proclaim him: Jesus Christ is the beginning and the end, the Alpha and the Omega; he is the king of the new world; he is the secret of history; he is the key to our destiny. He is the mediator, the bridge, between heaven and earth. He is more perfectly than anyone else the Son of Man, because he is the Son of God, eternal and infinite. He is the son of Mary, blessed among all women, his mother according to the flesh, and our mother through the sharing in the Spirit of his mystical body. Jesus Christ is our constant preaching; it is his name that we proclaim to the ends of the earth and throughout all ages.

From a homily of Pope St Paul VI, Manila, 29 November 1970.

MARRIAGE MATTERS

Love Grows when you Give it Away

We have become more aware over the years that the more we love, the more it grows. Our natural instinct is to always put ourselves first. 'To love' stands this mentality on its head! The Gospel says: "Anyone who loses his life for my sake will find it." When we experience being loved, we are enabled to love too!

WHAT HAPPENS AT MASS

THE OLD TESTAMENT READING .. the Gospel is the centre of the Liturgy of the Word. This claim has its roots in the Old Testament.. The Old Testament is a vast collection of theological traditions developed during well over a thousand years. Yet,.. it is not difficult for the one who reads with faith to see that the collection as a whole leads to a centre. Everything is organised around the Exodus, the wandering in the desert, the coming into the Promised Land. All things either lead to that, recount that, or look back to that...Every subsequent generation remembered and celebrated them...Jesus, as a Jewish man, would have done the same...He expresses himself in terms of them. This is especially true of the days leading up to his death and culminating in it. (pp. 37-38)

Priorities

In today's Gospel reading Jesus says that if we love anyone more than we love Him we are not worthy of Him. What He means is that we need to keep God first in our lives. The two great commandments He gave us are 'Love the Lord your God with all your heart and mind and strength' and 'Love your neighbour as yourself.'

How can we keep God first in our lives? We can start by talking to Him as soon as we start our day. We can tell Him we love Him and offer our day to Him! We also keep God first by following His laws- making sure we go to Mass and going to Confession.

The next most important thing is loving others. God wants us to love and care for the people He has put into our lives. First we must care for our family that He has given us and then our friends and neighbours.

What is the most important thing for you to do today? How can you put God first every day?

Try saying a short prayer like this when you wake up every morning:

Thank you God for giving us this day. I offer you all I do, think and say. Help me to be like Jesus in every way. Amen.

Today's Readings
13th Sunday in Ordinary Time- Year A

Entrance Antiphon

All peoples, clap your hands.
 Cry to God with shouts of joy!

A reading from the second book of the Kings 2 Kings 4:8-11, 14-16

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans Romans 6:3-4, 8-11

Alleluia, alleluia!

You are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy people. Praise God who called you out of darkness and into his marvellous light.

Alleluia!

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew Matthew 10:37-42

Communion Antiphon

Bless the Lord, O my soul, and all within me, his holy name.

Responsorial Psalm

I will sing for ever of your love, O Lord; through all ages my mouth will proclaim your truth. Of this I am sure, that your love lasts for ever, that your truth is firmly established as the heavens.

Happy the people who acclaim such a king, who walk, O Lord, in the light of your face, who find their joy every day in your name, who make your justice the source of their bliss.

For it is you, O Lord, who are the glory of their strength; it is by your favour that our might is exalted: for our ruler is in the keeping of the Lord; our king in the keeping of the Holy One of Israel.
