Thanks be to God, 57 young people of our parish and parish schools have obtained the fullness of Catholic Christian life this weekend. They have received all the sacraments of initiation now, and are ready to live to the full the life that began at Baptism.

They have prepared for months for these spiritual celebrations, in which they have been strengthened by being sealed with the gift of the Holy Spirit and nourished by the Body and Blood of Christ in his sacramental form.

They are able to play their full part in the life of the Church, which may include

- using their talents to enhance the life of the parish,
- taking initiatives to bring to the world the knowledge of the love of God,
- reaching out in the name of Jesus to marginalized people either at home or far away,
- speaking up about injustices wherever they see it.

I pray that they receive encouragement and good example from their parents, godparents, grandparents, fellow-parishioners and leaders in the Church.

I appeal to all parishioners to welcome all young people into our parish celebrations.

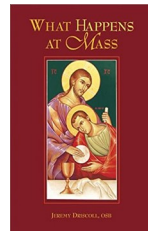

MARRIAGE MATTERS

The Key to Family Life

Today's Gospel places keys at the heart of the responsibility Jesus gives Peter. In spite of his weaknesses and failings, because of his faith, he is entrusted with the 'keys' to the kingdom of God. Our married love is entrusted with the 'keys' of our family life. We are the 'rock' upon which the future of our family will be built.

THE SECOND READING..

in these texts we recognise the living faith that was passed on to us from the apostles, the eyewitnesses of Jesus' death and Resurrection. .. The texts are considered inspired; that is, through them the Holy Spirit leads us to the understanding of Jesus' death and Resurrection that God intends. So, this is what happens at Mass when the writings of an apostle are proclaimed; the assembly is led in that moment to a grasping of the mystery. (pg. 46)

Bequests

Generosity of spirit is an important part of what Living Catholic is all about. Leaving a bequest epitomises this spirit and reminds us that God loves a cheerful giver.

Naturally you should always consider immediate family and friends first, but we would be incredibly grateful for any support that you can provide.

Bequests can be in favour of the North Adelaide Prospect Parish or in favour of the Dominican Fathers. Contact the Parish office for more information.

You are Peter

In today's Gospel, Jesus asks the disciples who they believe he is. Simon said that He was "the Christ, the Son of the living God!" Simon was just an ordinary fisherman, but Jesus, wanting to build his Church on strong foundations, recognised Simon Peter's faith was strong; rock like! Jesus told him his name would now be Peter, which means rock and that on this rock He would build His Church. Jesus told Peter he would give him the keys of the kingdom of Heaven and that the gates of Hell would not prevail against the Church.

He made Simon Peter the first pope. Jesus gave the teaching authority to Peter, and he passed it down to the bishops through all the centuries until now. Isn't that pretty amazing? Peter is one of the greatest leaders of the early Church.

In Peter, we see an example of how good Christian leaders are grounded by their faith in Jesus.

Parish Quiz Night - would you like to donate a prize?

The 2023 Parish Quiz Night will be held in the Parish Centre, after 6pm Mass, on Saturday, September 2. Thanks to all those who have nominated for the night, we now have a full quota of teams.

If you'd can't come along but would like to be involved in this Parish fundraiser had you considered donating a prize?

Perhaps you could donate something which will be a raffle prize or perhaps a box of chocolates or a $5 or $10 gift card which could be given away as a spot prize on the night. All donations will be gratefully accepted.
