Pope calls for world day of prayer for peace as catastrophe looms in Gaza

Pope Francis prays during his weekly general audience in St Peter's Square at the Vatican .. (CNS/ Lola Gomez)

Warning against a humanitarian catastrophe in Gaza and ongoing conflicts elsewhere, Pope Francis has called for a day of fasting, penance and prayer for peace in the world on Friday, October 27. Source: OSV News. "War does not solve any problems, it only sows death and destruction. It increases hatred, multiplies revenge. War erases the future," he said at the end of his general audience talk in St Peter's Square yesterday.

"Our thoughts go to Palestine and Israel," he said to applause.

"Casualties are rising and the situation in Gaza is desperate," he said. "Please, may everything possible be done to avoid a humanitarian catastrophe."

What is also "disturbing", he said, is the possibility the conflict will spread just as so many other battles of war are being waged in the world.

"Please," he said, "let us continue to pray for peace in the world, especially in tormented Ukraine", a tragedy that is no longer talked about but continues.

"Silence the weapons. Listen to the cry of the poor, the people, the children, for peace," the Pope said.

He urged all people of faith to take "just one side in this conflict: that of peace. But not with words, with prayer, with total dedication."

For this reason, he said, he has decided to call for a day of fasting, prayer and penance October 27.

The Pope invited men and women of every Christian denomination and other religions as well as those committed to the cause of peace to participate in any way they feel is appropriate.

There will be an hour of prayer starting at 6pm Rome time in St Peter's "imploring for peace in the world" he said, and local churches are invited to organise similar initiatives.

(At St Laurence's Church we will have one hour of Eucharistic adoration, in silence, beginning at 7 pm on Friday 27 October, praying for peace.)

MARRIAGE MATTERS

We All Need Each Other

The Pharisees tried to trap Jesus: He told them to give to Caesar what belongs to him, “and to God what belongs to God”. The world tells us to look after ourselves and not to need others. As married couples, we know that we are made by God for one another, not needy but needing to give of ourselves entirely.

THE HOMILY .. is also reserved to one of the ordained...not to say that lay people might not be just as insightful.. and just as effective. .. reserving the preaching of the homily to (the ordained) .. tells both the one preaching and the assembly listening what is to be expected in this moment. This is not the time for mere personal insight or for the spinning out of individual theories and stories. (It is) meant to be a guarantee in the assembly that what is heard is the Church’s apostolic faith .. Ordination includes the responsibility of representing this faith in a public, verifiable way. (p.52)

Nocturnal Adoration - Parish Hall

Exposition will begin at 7 pm, Oct 21 and continue until 7:30 am on Oct 22 . All welcome.

November Mass Envelopes

November is the month of the year designated by Holy Mother of Church as a time of prayer and good works on behalf of the deceased, calling on the Lord to give them eternal rest in His Kingdom. During this month, in addition to praying for our deceased loved ones, we should also pray for those who have passed and have nobody to pray for them. This is all part of our belief and belonging to the Communion of Saints. Put simply, the Communion of Saints is the spiritual union which binds the living and the dead.

If you would like to have those who have gone before us remembered in all Masses in November, please use the November Mass envelopes which will be available in the Churches. The names on the envelopes will be added to the Remembrance Book and Masses will be offered for those in the Remembrance Book collectively. Individual names will not be called out during mass. Please remember to write legibly to avoid spelling errors in the book.

We need to see each child as a gift to be welcomed, cherished, and protected.

This Week's Readings
29th Sunday Ordinary Time Year A

Entrance Antiphon

To you I call; for you will surely heed me, O God;
 Turn your ear to me; hear my words. Guard me as the apple of your eye; in the shadow of your wings protect me.

A reading from the prophet Is 45:1,4-6
 Isaiah

A reading from the letter of Thes 1: 1-5
 St Paul to the Thessalonians

Alleluia, alleluia!
 Shine on the world like bright stars;
 you are offering it the word of life.
 Alleluia!

A reading from the holy Gospel Matt 22:15-21
 according to Matthew

Communion Antiphon

Behold, the eyes of the Lord are on those who fear him, who hope in his merciful love, to rescue their souls from death, to keep them alive in famine.

Responsorial Psalm

O sing a new song to the Lord, sing to the Lord all the earth. Tell among the nations his glory and his wonders among all the peoples.

The Lord is great and worthy of praise,
 to be feared above all gods;
 the gods of the heathens are naught.
 It was the Lord who made the heavens.

Give the Lord, you families of peoples,
 give the Lord glory and power,
 give the Lord the glory of his name.
 Bring an offering and enter his courts.

Worship the Lord in his temple,
 O earth, tremble before him.
 Proclaim to the nations: 'God is king,'
 He will judge the peoples in fairness.
